

Open positions – European Youth Energy Network

External Relations Manager (4h/week)

Young Energy Consumers Task Force

Are you a passionate student or young professional, and want to contribute your skills and curiosity towards a strong youth voice in energy? Then the European Youth Energy Network (EYEN) is the right place for you to thrive.

Let's reshape youth engagement in the European energy transition together!

EYEN is the Federation of energy-focused youth organisations in Europe., uniting organisations from across Europe and reshaping youth engagement towards a just, empowered and collaborative energy transition. We advocate for the meaningful engagement of young people in the energy transition, and we create spaces that allow them to have an impact. For the coming years, we have big plans on empowering, connecting, coordinating, educating and advocating where youth and energy meet. EYEN's flagship annual event: the European Youth Energy Forum with its 12 practical policy proposals.

EYEN's Young Energy Consumers Task Force

What is it? The Young Energy Consumer Task Force is a team of about 5 people responsible for creating the knowledge on young energy consumers in Europe for EYEN purposes. The Task Force is part of many future teams that will work on different topics for EYEN strategic objectives of Advocacy, Empowerment, Connection and Coordination.
