

Open positions – European Youth Energy Network Social Media Manager (6-8h/week)

Are you a passionate student or young professional, and want to contribute your skills and curiosity towards a strong youth voice in energy? Then the European Youth Energy Network (EYEN) is the right place for you to thrive.

Let's reshape youth engagement in the European energy transition together!

EYEN is the Federation of energy-focused youth organisations in Europe, uniting organisations from across Europe and reshaping youth engagement towards a just, empowered and collaborative energy transition. We advocate for the meaningful engagement of young people in the energy transition, and we create spaces that allow them to have an impact. For the coming years, we have big plans on empowering, connecting, coordinating, educating and advocating where youth and energy meet. EYEN's flagship annual event: the European Youth Energy Forum with its 12 practical policy proposals.

To communicate consistently about the international non-profit association and give behind-the-scenes insights into youth in the energy transition we are building a strong team. We promise that if you join us, you'll embark on a huge learning journey and meet like-minded people from across Europe and beyond.

Will you contribute your creative captions and socially strategic superpowers to the European energy transition, in an ambitious federation? Break down complexity with us.

→ Your role

- Come up with creative campaigns to increase the reach of EYEN's social media and promote our amazing activities, members, partners
- Create engaging content on our channels based on a social media plan
- Write texts, create social media events, plan posts and coordinate with the graphic designer on social media graphics
- Be assigned, as needed, to project and events to support or lead communication activities there
- Moderate online content and messages, interact with other pages and forward any relevant information to the team; coordinate with the Communication Lead

→ You are a good fit for this role if you

- Speak and write fluently in English
- Have basic knowledge of LinkedIn, Instagram and Facebook, which are the social media channels we use. And are willing to learn more through your role!
- Are a creative person, able to bring new, fresh ideas to the table
- Speak and write fluently in English, and love to use the power of language to get a message across and activate people to take action
- Have time consistently, since regular posting is the basis for successful social media activities
- Can work independently, yet also love teamwork

→ The experience is 100% worth it. This is why ▼

- You will work in a dynamic (and fun!) group of international young professionals and students, co-creating the development of an impactful organisation
- You will learn a lot about youth involvement in the energy sector and benefit from our network with contacts to a wide range of organisations and institutions
- You will be part of a project that can fulfil you as key player in the integration of youth in the energy transition

Apply now by sending your motivation and CV until 5 February 2023 to careers@youthenergy.eu, adding any proof of work would be desirable.
